

The Crimson White's Diversity Statement

The Crimson White is committed to diversity in our newsroom. Having a diverse and inclusive staff is essential to our mission because it adds valued perspectives to our reporting and because our staff should reflect the community we cover. It's important that our staff work in an environment that is fair, inclusive, engaging and rewarding to everyone.

Editors, staff members and contributors will work together to create and maintain a safe, diverse and collaborative newsroom that prioritizes accurate and compelling storytelling. The Crimson White will also be committed to covering historically underrepresented communities in media with tact and nuance.

We actively welcome students of all backgrounds and perspectives. No student may be denied involvement on the basis of race, sex, religion, national origin, color, age, disability, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation or veteran status.
